The Board of Executives of Long-Term Services and Supports (BELTSS)
LeadingAge Ohio and Ohio Health Care Association

Winter 2023

Core of Knowledge Course

The Core of Knowledge course is designed specifically for the Administrator-In-Training (AIT) participant. This course meets the special academic requirement set by BELTSS for qualifying to take the state licensure board examination. Ohio participants should call the Board at (614) 466-5114 to arrange their AIT internship. The Core may be taken at any time during the process: before, during, or after the internship. Core hours do not count towards the internship hours.

Content

The content of the course is designed to provide information and promote understanding that will lead to more effective performance in the administration of long-term care. The subject areas listed below have been recommended by the National Association of Long-Term Care Administrator Boards and endorsed by BELTSS.

These topics are included in the Core of Knowledge course:

- 1) applicable standards of environment, health and safety;
- 2) local health and safety regulations;
- 3) general administration;
- 4) psychology of care;
- 5) principles of medical care;
- 6) personal and social care;
- 7) therapeutic and supportive care and services in long-term care;
- 8) departmental organization and management; and
- 9) community interrelationships

Enrollment

Enrollment is open to anyone interested in becoming a nursing home administrator as well as those wanting professional training in nursing home administration. If you plan to attend the course, online registration is available at: www.leadingageohio.org.

Course Format

Per 4751-1-05.1 of the Administrative Code, section (A) requires 100 clock hours of study in core of knowledge subjects. Therefore this course will include face-to-face classroom learning as well as several self-study assignments. Students will complete web-based self-study, traditional DVD as well as written assignments. Students must attend every day of the face-to-face classroom presentations as well as complete all self-study assignments to successfully graduate from the BELTSS Core of Knowledge.

Certificate of Completion

All those satisfactorily completing the course will receive a certificate which satisfies the requirement with the Board of Executives for Long Term Services and Supports (BELTSS).

Dates

The winter session will take place January 9 - January 26, 2023

Classes will be held Monday through Thursday for three weeks from approximately 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. each day. A final course schedule and further details will be sent out a few weeks before the class begins.
